

God is always Speaking

There is a version of God that is only available to those who hear what God is saying per time.