

When every circumstance is saying it is impossible, something is wrong with you; God is saying to you, it's possible and nothing is wrong with you.